

2019-20 Academic Merit Scholarships and Financial Aid for First-Year Students

ACADEMIC MERIT SCHOLARSHIPS

Domestic first-year, full-time undergraduate students admitted to Trinity University's Class of 2023 who apply by our February 1, 2019, Regular Decision deadline are automatically considered for the scholarship offerings listed below. No additional applications are required. Students who have strong academic preparation but who do not meet the specific criteria below will also be considered for scholarships by the Trinity University Admissions Committee.

Applicants who apply for admission after February 1, 2019, will be considered for merit scholarships on a case-by-case basis by the Admissions Committee and award amounts may not reflect the levels indicated below.

Scholarship Name	Selection Criteria Recalculated Core GPA and ACT Composite or SAT EBRW & M			Annual Award	Four-Year Award
Trinity Tower Scholarship To be considered for this award, your application for admission must be submitted under an ED or EA (I or II) application plan.	Murchison Scholars and other top applicants will be invited to compete for a full-tuition scholarship at the Trinity Tower Scholars Day competition. Please see the information below for more details regarding Trinity Tower Scholars Day.			Full-Tuition Award Trinity Tower Scholars Day attendees will compete for one of up to 20 full-tuition scholarships.
Murchison Scholarship	GPA	and	ACT or SAT	$26,000	$104,000
	4.00		31 1400
	3.85		34 1500
	3.75		36 1600
Trustees' Scholarship	4.00		29 1340	$23,000	$92,000
	3.75		31 1400
	3.50		33 1460
President's Scholarship	3.85		26 1240	$18,000	$72,000
	3.40		28 1310
	3.00		30 1370
Dean's Scholarship	3.25		26 1240	$12,500	$50,000

Awards are determined based on official testing and high school transcript information received by the Office of Admissions at the time of a student's application. Core GPAs are recalculated on an unweighted 4.0 scale using the student's core academic courses (English, math, science, social science, and foreign language) completed in high school.

Trinity University does not have a preference for ACT or SAT. Trinity superscores, using the highest test scores submitted for admission and scholarship consideration. For ACT, the highest scores for each subtest will be combined to generate the highest composite score; for SAT, the best Evidence-Based Reading & Writing and Math subscores will be used to calculate a maximum single score.

TRINITY TOWER SCHOLARS DAY: FULL-TUITION SCHOLARSHIP COMPETITION

The Admissions Committee will invite Murchison Scholarship recipients and other top students admitted to Trinity University's Class of 2023 who apply Early Decision (I or II) or Early Action (I or II) by January 1 to compete for up to 20 full-tuition Trinity Tower Scholarships during our Trinity Tower Scholars Day (TTSD) on Saturday, March 2, 2019.

Regular Decision applicants will not be eligible to attend TTSD or compete for a full-tuition scholarship.

For more information, please contact the Office of Admissions at admissions@trinity.edu or 1-800-TRINITY.

SPECIALIZED MERIT SCHOLARSHIPS & GRANTS

The Semmes Distinguished Scholars in Science Award is a full-tuition scholarship open, by application and interview, to students interested in majoring in a STEM-related field. In order to be considered for this award, students must apply for admission to the University under an Early Decision or Early Action (I or II) decision plan by our January 1 deadline and submit the Semmes Distinguished Scholars in Science Application online by January 1. Visit gotu.us/semmes for more information about this prestigious award.

The Storer & Tillman Scholarship for Developing Christian Leaders is open to students, by application, who demonstrate financial need and a commitment to developing their leadership skills in the context of their faith. Visit gotu.us/storertillman for application details and more information.

If you demonstrate exceptional talent in art, music, theatre, or debate, we encourage you to apply for Baker Duncan Art/Debate/Music/Theatre Scholarships. Awards are available in various amounts up to $10,000.

If you are a National Merit Finalist who lists Trinity as your first-choice school by May 1, 2019, you will be considered for an additional Trinity National Merit Scholarship of $2,000.

FINANCIAL AID

In addition to academic merit scholarships, Trinity has a variety of other resources available to assist students and their families in addressing educational costs. To be considered for these additional grants, low-interest loans, and campus employment opportunities, please submit the following applications by our preferred filing deadline of February 15:

CSS Profile student.collegeboard.org/profile

Available October 1

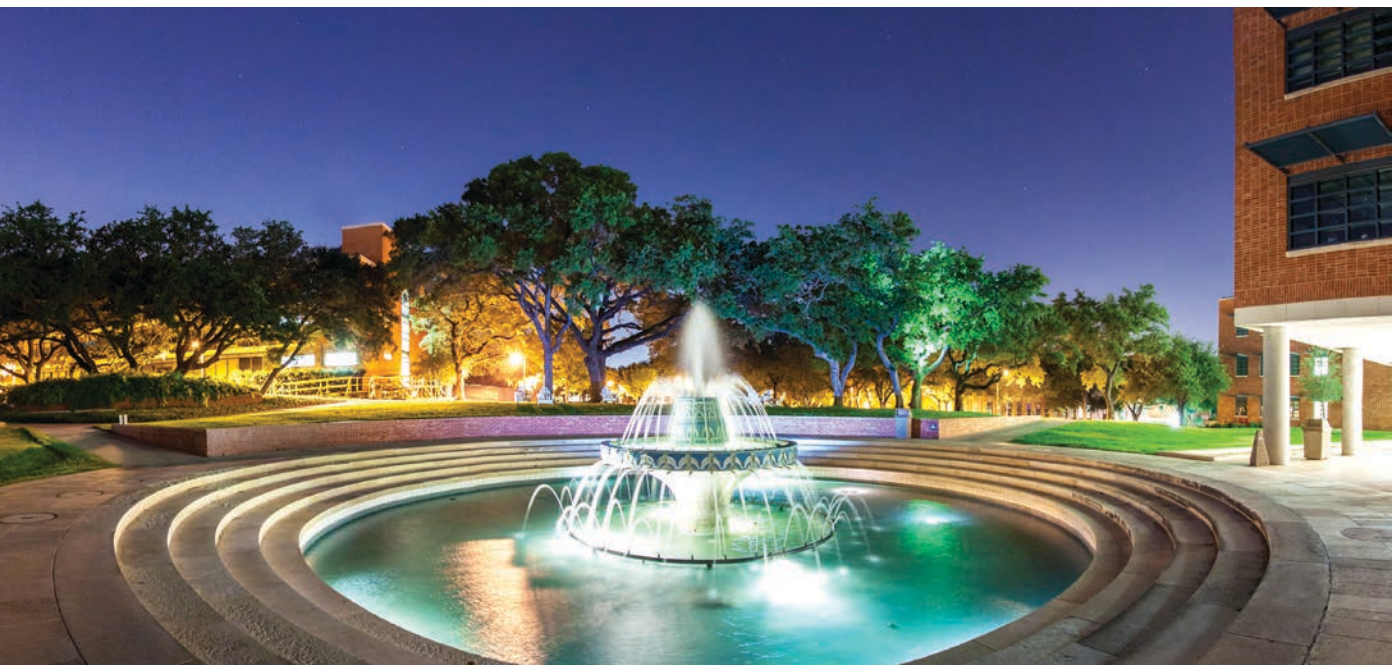

Trinity school code: 6831

Free Application For Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) www.fafsa.gov

Available October 1

Trinity school code: 003647

Visit gotu.us/finaid for more information.

TRINITY
UNIVERSITY

SAN ANTONIO • 1869

Discover. Grow. Become.

Trinity University
Office of Admissions
One Trinity Place
San Antonio, Texas 78212

admissions@trinity.edu
1-800-TRINITY
210-999-8164 fax

www.trinity.edu/admissions