Semmes Distinguished Scholar in Science
Scholarship Application Preview

This full-tuition scholarship is open, by application and interview, to students interested in majoring in the sciences.

In order to be considered, students must apply for admission to the University by our January 1 Early Action II deadline and submit the Semmes Distinguished Scholars in Science Application online by January 1.

*Denotes a required field or question.

Student Information:

1. First Name*
2. Last Name*
3. Address*
4. City*
5. State*
6. Zip*
7. Country*
8. Student Phone Number*
9. Student E-Mail Address*

Short Answer Questions:

Please respond to each question below in 250 words or less:

1. What interests you most about Trinity University?*
2. What subject do you plan to study at Trinity?*

Please select what you would like to make your primary area of study at Trinity.

a. Biology
b. Biochemistry
c. Biochemistry & Molecular Biology
d. Chemistry
e. Computer Science
f. Engineering Science
g. Geosciences
h. Mathematics
i. Neuroscience
j. Physics & Astronomy
k. Other
3. What role do you see research playing in your college experience?*
4. What are your career goals?*
5. Do you have any research or internship experience in this or a related field?*
   a. Yes
   b. No
6. If yes, please provide a brief summary.*

Long Answer Question:

Please respond to the following question in 250 - 500 words:

1. What drives your interest in science, mathematics, or technology?*

Submit Your Application Online:

Please submit your responses to these questions online at new.trinity.edu/semmes by navigating to the online application.

Responses must be submitted online through the official application form to be considered for the Semmes Distinguished Scholars in Science Award.

Questions?

If you have any questions about this application form or how to submit the application online, please contact the Office of Admissions at 1-800-TRINITY or admissions@trinity.edu.